

MAAA NEWSLETTER SEPTEMBER 2021

THE MAAA IS GOING HOME!!

OUR NEXT MEETING: SEPTEMBER 19, 2021 – 1:30 PM

WILL BE HELD AT THE
CIOCIARO SOCIAL CLUB

144 BRIDGE STREET

NEWTON, MA

We will have our play-along and an open mic session.

Masks will be required and we will not share snacks.

This month's music theme is songs of September and Oktoberfest.

A sincere "THANK YOU" to the Trinity Episcopal Church for allowing us to use their facilities in Canton while Newton was unavailable for our meetings.

Thank you, Joe Cerritto!

At the August meeting and at the age of 89, Joe dazzled all those in attendance with his “flying fingers” and original arrangements. In addition Joe brought “tons” of one of a kind sheet music and gave it away to anyone wanting to add to their library. His generosity was greatly appreciated. Thank you. Joe!

- Annual Dues – if you haven’t paid as yet, please do so. The due date was September 1, 2021. Remittance invoices are available on the MAAA website.
- The Ruk Accordion Orchestra - A concert is planned for December 5, 2021 at the Trinity Episcopal Church. The orchestra welcomes new members at any time.
- The New England Digital Accordion Orchestra will be returning to Chatham on Cape Cod for the town’s New Year’s celebration this year. Further details to follow.
- Election of Officers will be coming up this fall.
- Newletter Entries – If you have anything you would like us to consider for the newsletter or website please submit it to the appropriate person below.

October’s Guest Artist will be Cory Pesaturo
